PILLARS OF AFRICA

9. Participating players and teams will not take part in any form of manipulation (by offering or attempting to offer a bribe or by receiving or attempting to receive or seek a bribe) or unlawfully alter or influence the result or any other aspect of a football match or competition. The organisers will have the right to expel a player(s)/team that does the contrary.

D. General

10. The organisers reserve the right to change the rules of participation without prior notice. In case of any disputes arising, the organisers' decision will be final.

E. Data Collection & Technology Consent

19. Matches will be recorded by cameras and/or third-party video analysis platforms. Match footage and derived tactical/performance data may be stored, processed and used by the organisers and their authorised partners for broadcast and promotional purposes.
20. Participants' data will be held securely and processed in accordance with the Data Protection Act of Kenya (2019).
21. All personal and performance data collected under this registration will be retained for the duration of the tournament and for up to 7 years thereafter for legal and reporting purposes. Players have the right to access, correct or request deletion of their personal data by contacting poa@woodside.africa.
22. Each individual participating player is required to download and complete a separate Consent Form before participating in the tournament. A team's submission of this Registration Form does not replace the Consent Form.
